

Chapter 74 - Solicitations

1. General Provisions.

It is hereby determined that regulation of all types of solicitation and peddling are sufficiently connected to the City's interest in preventing crime and protecting citizens' quiet enjoyment and peace. It is also determined that a significant connection among evening solicitation, evidence of nighttime crime, and disruption of citizens' quiet enjoyment and peace exists to limit all types of solicitation according to the following schedule: October 1st through March 31st the hours are 9:00 AM until 6:00 PM; April 1st through September 30th the hours are 9:00 AM until 8:00 PM. It is further determined that the City has no other less restrictive means available to achieve its objectives. It is further determined that a ban on solicitation outside the aforementioned hours leaves ample alternative channels of communication open to solicitors in the City.
